

KKR to Appoint Robert Lewin as Chief Financial Officer

December 4, 2019

Bill Janetschek Retiring at Year End

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- KKR & Co. Inc. (NYSE:KKR) (together with its affiliates, "KKR") today announced that Robert H. Lewin will be appointed Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), effective January 1, 2020. Mr. Lewin will succeed William ("Bill") J. Janetschek who will be retiring from KKR at the end of the year.

Henry Kravis and George Roberts, Co-CEOs and Co-Chairmen of KKR, stated: "During a long and successful career at KKR, Bill transformed our finance function from one that supported a small partnership to the world-class operation it is today. We are indebted to Bill for his dedication to KKR, which spans over three decades, first as an advisor to KKR and then as our CFO for the last 20 years."

"We are pleased to welcome Rob Lewin to a new role at KKR. We have both worked very closely with Rob since he joined KKR 16 years ago. He has a deep understanding of the firm, having held numerous strategic leadership, business development and investing roles throughout his career. Rob is a strong culture carrier who has been a trusted advisor and leader on many of the firm's major advances over the last several years," Joe Bae and Scott Nuttall, Co-Presidents and Co-Chief Operating Officers of KKR, added.

Since joining KKR in 2004, Mr. Lewin has held a number of positions. These include as an investor in private equity, helping launch KKR's Asia business, co-leading the firm's credit and capital markets businesses, and serving as Treasurer and Head of Corporate Development with oversight of KKR's balance sheet. For the last two years, Mr. Lewin served as Head of Human Capital & Strategic Talent where he has led all aspects of KKR's talent function.

Prior to joining KKR, Mr. Lewin was at Bear Stearns & Company. Mr. Lewin currently serves on the board of Answer the Call. He holds a B.S. from the University of Pennsylvania.
