

KKR, together with Hines Italia SGR and COIMA, makes its first real estate acquisition in Italy

July 7, 2015

LONDON--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- KKR, a leading global investment firm, together with Hines Italia Value Added Fund, a fund managed by Hines Italia SGR, and COIMA, today announced the acquisition of five telecom assets leased to Telecom Italia. The assets were acquired from "Tecla Fondo Uffici", a closed ended fund managed by Prelios SPR, for €49 million.

The portfolio has a total area of 35,500 square metres. It consists of five separate sites, in Rome, Monza, Parma, San Remo and Pavia.

Since launching a dedicated real estate platform in 2011, KKR has committed over $2 billion to 50 real estate transactions in the U.S., Europe and Asia as of Q1 2015. The real estate team consists of over 30 dedicated investment professionals.

Guillaume Cassou, head of European Real Estate at KKR, commented: "This purchase of five telecom assets in Italy, our first real estate deal in the country, demonstrates KKR's continued commitment to investing in European real estate. The assets' long-term leases and their strategic nature make this an attractive acquisition. Collaborating with Hines on the acquisition is further testament to our firms' extensive relationship in both the US and Europe."

Manfredi Catella, CEO of Hines Italia SGR and Honorary President of COIMA, commented: "Our Italian platform is structured as a fiduciary investment and operating partner of leading domestic and international institutional investors. KKR is a first class partner and we look forward to expanding collaboration in Italy."

KKR and Hines Italia SGR were advised by Gianni, Origoni, Grippo, Cappelli & Partners and Apollo & Associati on the legal front, while CBRE lent support in the due diligence of the investment.
