The KKR Global Institute Enhances Our Approach

Created in 2013 under General (Ret.) David H. Petraeus as chairman, KKR Global Institute (KGI) integrates geopolitical and global trends expertise, macroeconomic analyses, and stakeholder engagement, including environmental, social, and governance (ESG), public policy, regulatory, and reputational issues and opportunities into our Firm's investment process. KGI also helps guide our investments and portfolio companies on political, security, and regulatory issues to help them grow.

KGI: Integrating Global and Local Perspectives

PRIMARY AREAS OF FOCUS

GEOPOLITICS AND GOVERNANCE

Country risk and opportunity, regulatory trends, and security issues

MACROECONOMICS

GDP trends, fiscal policy, monetary policy, and exchange rates

PUBLIC POLICY & REGULATORY ISSUES

Thorough understanding and engagement on relevance of public policy, regulatory, and reputational issues affecting companies and industries

TECHNOLOGY-DRIVEN SHIFTS

Advances in information technology, energy, manufacturing, and the life sciences

BUSINESS' RELATIONSHIP TO SOCIETY

Share best practices and de-risk companies on environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues
