

Laureate Education Accepts Increased Offer from Investor Group of $62.00 Per Share in Cash via a Tender Offer

Investor Group Intends to Commence Tender Offer by June 8, 2007

Baltimore, Md., June 4, 2007 – Laureate Education, Inc. (NASDAQ: LAUR), the world's leading international provider of higher education, announced today that it has accepted an increased offer from the investor group led by Douglas L. Becker, Laureate's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, to acquire Laureate at a price of $62.00 per share in cash, or an aggregate value of $3.82 Billion. Under the terms of the revised merger agreement, the investor group – which includes Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. (KKR); Citi Private Equity; S.A.C. Capital Management, LLC; SPG Partners; Bregal Investments; Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec; Sterling Capital; Makena Capital; Torreal S.A.; and Brenthurst Funds – will commence a tender offer on or before June 8, 2007, to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Laureate's common stock.

The $62.00 per share tender offer represents a $1.50 per share increase over the $60.50 per share price provided in the original merger agreement announced on January 28, 2007, and a premium of 26% over the closing price of Laureate's common stock on Thursday, January 4, 2007, the day before the Special Committee of independent directors of Laureate's Board of Directors authorized its advisors to begin negotiation of a definitive agreement at a price of $60.50 per share.

The Special Committee unanimously recommended the higher offer to Laureate's Board, which, with the interested directors recusing themselves from the vote, approved the transaction. The Special Committee believes that the investor group's tender offer will deliver improved value to Laureate's shareholders in a more efficient and more immediate fashion than through the process provided in the original merger agreement. Each of the disinterested members of Laureate's Board has agreed to tender his or her shares in the tender offer. Mr. Becker and R. Christopher Hoehn-Saric, a director of Laureate, as well as certain other affiliates of Sterling Capital, have agreed to accept the original $60.50 per share price in connection with the rollover of their shares in the transaction.

The tender offer will expire at midnight New York time on the 20th business day following and including the commencement date, unless extended in accordance with the terms of the revised merger agreement and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Following completion of the tender offer, in which at least a simple majority (i.e., more than 50%) of Laureate's outstanding shares on a fully diluted basis (other than any shares held by the bidding entities) must be tendered, the investor group has committed to complete a second-step merger in which all remaining shares of Laureate's common stock will be converted into the right to receive the same price paid per share in the tender offer. The merger agreement permits the investor group to revise the condition regarding minimum acceptance of the tender offer to decrease the minimum acceptance threshold to a number that, when combined with shares owned or subject to options held by Messrs. Becker, Hoehn-Saric and others, would represent a majority of Laureate's outstanding common shares. The tender offer and subsequent merger are subject to customary conditions for transactions of this type.

The equity investment for the transaction will be contributed by the investors, including Mr. Becker, and debt financing will be provided by Goldman Sachs Credit Partners L.P., Citi Markets & Banking, Credit Suisse, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. Morgan Stanley and Merrill Lynch & Co. are financial advisors and provided fairness opinions to the Special Committee of Laureate's Board. Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP is the Special Committee's legal advisor and DLA Piper US LLP serves as legal advisor to Laureate. Citi Markets & Banking and Goldman Sachs serve as financial advisors to Mr. Becker and the investor group and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP and Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP provide legal counsel.
